Description

Charming 17th-Century Charles II Jacobean Geometric Chest of Drawers with Superb PatinaA wonderfully characterful late 17th-century Charles II Jacobean oak geometric chest of drawers, boasting exceptional color, depth and patina.This finely crafted piece features a rectangular planked top with molded edge, above four long graduated, oak lined drawers, all enriched with crisp geometric molding. The drawers retain their original brass drop handles, escutcheons and locks, adding both visual interest and great authenticity. Raised on its original front bun feet and rear square stile feet, with original planked back and paneled sides, this chest offers a completely honest, untouched feel that is increasingly hard to find. The rich, warm color and beautifully matured surface bear the hallmark
