Description

A pair of Louis XVI period gilt bronze candlesticks, richly decorated on the foot and stem with a floral braid against a finely chased background. Laurel wreaths adorn the stem. Fluting and gadroons embellish the candlesticks. Typical of the Greek Revival style, circa 1770-1780. Assembled in two pieces with threaded joints, numbered with a hallmark, the threadwork of the candlesticks is still visible. The gilding is in good overall condition with only minor signs of wear. A similar pair was sold at Sotheby's, 1-7 July 2022, in the "Style Paris: Furniture and Works of Art" sale, lot 211. From the former collection of Jacques Favre de Thierrens
