Description

Winter landscape under the snow. Léonard Bordes, a very prolific painter of the Rouen school, devoted several canvases to snowy landscapes, which are generally very successful. His inimitable way of painting trees is evident here, and the composition is solid with its powerful vanishing lines. He always includes human figures in his compositions to enliven the countryside. Subtle winter lighting on the grove. Signed lower left. Oil on hardboard panel in perfect condition. 50 x 61 cm. Beautiful frame by DELF. 69 x 80 cm
