Description

The Enchantment of the Roman Eighteenth Century Immersing oneself in this work means traveling through time to the heart of the 18th century. We offer a refined oil on canvas from 1720, a masterpiece that captures the essence of Arcadian classicism. Consequently, the observer is immediately captivated by the mastery of the composition, where nature and man coexist in a perfect and timeless harmony. The Genius of Andrea Locatelli The work is attributed to Andrea Locatelli, one of the greatest exponents of Roman landscape painting. Moreover, his ability to balance light and shadow makes every detail vibrant. Certainly, the master's hand is recognizable in the delicacy of the figures and in the atmospheric depth. However, it is the feeling of idyllic peace that makes this painting an
