Description

Set of 6 chairs by Ejner Larsen and A. Bender Madsen for Willy Beck, Scandinavian design in leather and rosewood, 1960s. Elegant set of six Danish chairs with a simple and ergonomic design. Solid rosewood frame with soft lines, slightly tapered cylindrical legs, and seats/backs upholstered in black leather. The curve of the backrest naturally supports the back, while the soft, slightly contoured seat ensures excellent comfort. Designers: Ejner Larsen & A. Bender Madsen. Manufacturer: Willy Beck, Copenhagen. Period: 1960. Materials: Rosewood (frame), black leather (seat and backrest). Style: Scandinavian Modern, warm and functional minimalism. Larsen & Madsen are among the discreet but major figures of post-war Danish design. Trained at the Copenhagen School of Applied Arts, they
