Description

Empire-style side table in mottled maple with a bluestone top, 19th century. Round Biedermeier-style column/bedside table, circa 1825-1845, with an elegant cylindrical shaft veneered in birch or mottled maple, honey-colored with fine black stringing. Original black marble top, molded plinth base. A discreet door opens to reveal practical interior storage. A warm and understated accent piece, ideal as an end table, bedside table, or sculpture stand in a classic or contemporary interior. Discover all our other products on our website:
