Description

1950s Curved Oak Counter/Bar. A truly distinctive piece, this curved oak counter embodies the craftsmanship of 1950s workshops: a facade rhythmically divided by vertical slats (paneling effect) that catch the light, a generous and perfectly controlled curve, and a light-colored base (stone/glazed terracotta) that accentuates the line with an elegant touch. The enveloping curve is ideal for seating, serving, or creating a bar area. The tight-grained oak, with its honey/caramel patina and satin finish, lends it a warm and inviting feel. The back features two side cupboards with solid doors, a drawer unit for tools/glassware, and spacious radiating shelves that follow the curve for bottles and trays, making it highly functional. Its robust construction on a solid base ensures stability and is ready for
