Description

View of Posillipo from the Riviera di Chiaia, circa 1695. Circle of Angelo Maria Costa (1670-1721). Large view of Posillipo from the Riviera di Chiaia, typical of the 17th-century Neapolitan Italian school. Oil on canvas, attributed to the circle of Angelo Maria Costa. Of exceptional quality, this work constitutes an important historical testimony to the artist's work, painted on an unusual scale, probably as a private commission. Costa was one of the first great painters of the Neapolitan coast, whose natural beauty and culture he masterfully captured. Provenance: Private collection, London. Dimensions: Approximately 145 x 99 cm (framed).
