Description

Charming Chinese lamp from the 1960s, crafted from porcelain with an irregular, milky, honeycomb-like glaze. It features a bulbous body, a carved and openwork black wooden base, a lotus leaf frieze at the base, and an ornamented flared neck. The lamp is topped with a domed shade and chimney reminiscent of oil lamps. The piece is a beautiful decorative element, with compliant wiring. It is a useful and luminous piece, both in its presence and the lovely light it diffuses. A beautiful decorative piece in very good condition, this charming lamp will easily find a place in any room.
