Description

A beautiful example of Danish design in Rio rosewood. Lovely details include brushed metal inlays on the four hinged doors on the front and back of the rosewood cabinet, with a slight recess in the joints, allowing it to be used as a room divider, behind a sofa, or at the foot of a bed. The two center doors open to reveal a long, height-adjustable shelf; the left door opens to four pull-out drawers; and the right door opens to two height-adjustable shelves. The interior is veneered in teak. The legs are solid rosewood on a solid pine frame with rosewood veneer.
