Exquisite paperweight in double-layered green crystal, signed Sèvres with a pointed tool on the edge. The design features a wide emerald green layer resting on a deeply star-cut background. At the center is a crystal-ceramic medallion depicting a neoclassical-inspired female profile. It possesses a beautiful optical depth, with a striking contrast between the colored crystal and the white medallion. A characteristic piece from the Sèvres crystalworks, produced in the mid-20th century. In very good condition.
