Description

Pair of Late 19th Century Curtains - Elegant Weave in Shades of Blue and Gold. This charming pair of curtains dates from the late 19th century and is made from a beautifully woven and subtly textured fabric. The design features a harmonious composition of stripes and checks in delicate shades of light and deep blue, enhanced with golden yellow, luminous ochre, and a soft purplish pink. The overall effect is a vibrant yet balanced palette, both warm and refined. The curtains are finished with structured pleats at the top, highlighted by elegant blue fringe trim, providing a charming decorative touch. A golden yellow lining enhances the depth of the colors and ensures the curtains drape beautifully. The fabric is in good condition. For installation, you will need curtain rings with hooks.
