Charming Scene Of A Print And Painting Market - 1910

720 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Oil on canvas depicting a market of prints, images, and small paintings at the beginning of the 20th century. Around a stall composed of trestles laden with engravings and popular images, several figures in traditional costumes enliven the scene. In the background, the works are suspended by strings and held in place by simple fasteners, a realistic detail that evokes the itinerant and popular nature of the trade. The painting is distinguished by the meticulousness of its execution: each hanging image is individualized, and landscapes, religious scenes, and various views are clearly distinguishable, creating a charming mise en abyme effect. Possibly inspired by Brittany, in the spirit of the regionalist scenes so popular around 1900. Signed and dated 1910 lower right (signature difficult to
