Description

Rare biomechanical-style wall lamp reminiscent of the designs of Hans Ruedi Giger, renowned for his film sets and creatures (Alien, etc.). This unique, generously sized wall lamp is in very good original condition, with the exception of a small chip (visible in the photo), and retains its original wiring. The lamp features numerous intricate details and is signed and dated Joël Lurois 79 on the base. It measures 38cm high, 28cm wide, and has a maximum depth of 29cm. Carefully packaged and shipped via Colissimo.
