Description

A Louis XV period (18th century) marquetrie cherrywood chiffonier. This charming chiffonier, crafted from solid cherrywood, rests on four cabriole legs ending in delicate gilt-bronze sabots. The piece presents a slender and harmonious silhouette, typical of the Louis XV period, combining refined lines and elegant proportions. The slightly concave top with molded edges is richly decorated with figurative marquetrie depicting a floral scene enlivened by two birds perched on branches and a magnificent small bird in flight. The marquetrie work, using contrasting woods, highlights the natural grain of the wood and testifies to refined craftsmanship. The front features three drawers, adorned with finely chased bronze keyhole escutcheons. The top drawer conceals a sliding writing surface covered
