Description

Large and prestigious jardinière in high-fired earthenware, produced by the renowned Tours-based manufacturer Jaget et Pinon (1890-1919). This masterpiece is distinguished by its "Eagles and Bees" decoration, the most prestigious and sought-after iconography of Touraine production. Color & Glaze: The Empire green glaze of exceptional depth, achieved through high-fire firing, offers a striking contrast with the gilding. Ornamentation: Rich decoration in fine gold composed of two facing Imperial Eagles and a scattering of Napoleonic bees. Side Pieces: The handles, with their sculpted relief, depict oak branches laden with acorns, emblems of strength and longevity, entirely highlighted in gold. Frieze: The neck is encircled by a frieze of neoclassical scrolls and palmettes on a dark green
