Description

An elegant pair of Italian five-branch candelabra crafted in solid 800 silver, hollow, dating to the 20th century. Each piece displays refined Baroque-inspired scrollwork, with gracefully curved arms issuing from a baluster-form central stem and supported by a shaped circular base. The fluid repoussé decoration and sculptural detailing reflect the long-standing Italian tradition of ornamental silverwork.Both candelabra are clearly hallmarked "800" indicating 800/1000 silver purity, along with the "VM" silversmith's mark, confirming Italian origin. The balanced proportions and substantial construction give these pieces a dignified presence, suitable for formal dining settings or decorative display.The detachable branches allow for practical cleaning and maintenance. Their symmetrical design and
