Description

DescriptionPair of antique wrought iron garden armchairs, likely French or Spanish, dating to the late 19th or early 20th century. Hand-forged frames with scrolled arms, arched backs, and slatted seats reflect traditional European garden design. Traces of original green paint remain beneath consistent surface rust and natural patina. Decorative yet functional, they retain strong architectural lines and authentic period character.ArtistUnknown maker, European, late 19th to early 20th century.Artist DetailsThese armchairs reflect traditional hand-forged ironwork associated with French and Spanish garden furniture workshops. The scrolled arms and linear slatted construction are characteristic of Mediterranean outdoor design of the period.MovementsEuropean Decorative Arts /
