Description

Antique Low Buffet in Solid Oak - Regional Style / Louis XV Period - 18th Century.

Charming antique low buffet in solid oak, in the regional style, offering ample storage and a warm presence. This piece features two molded side doors, a decorative central panel adorned with a marquetry star, and three drawers in the upper section (including a smaller central drawer with a keyhole escutcheon). The brass handles and keyhole escutcheons add a touch of understated elegance. The doors open to reveal interior shelves, providing practical storage space. The interior is lined with antique decorative paper, easily changed to suit your taste. The front is beautifully crafted with moldings typical of provincial furniture. The cabriole legs and the cut-out lower rail create a pleasing visual
