Description

A rare miniature model of an artist's horse in oak, hand-carved and crafted in the early 20th century. Fully articulated, it features flexible limbs, hooves, neck, and head. Its stand is fitted with two brass rods, adjustable in height with wing nuts. The tail is made of horsehair. This is an original piece, boasting a beautiful color and patina. A lovely object that would suit an artist or horse collector. Circa 1930
