

Pair Of Curtains With Elephant Design - Publisher Gaston Y Daniela

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 297 cm

Width : 148 cm

Description

A stunning pair of curtains adorned with a sumptuous design of richly armored elephants, accompanied by historically inspired figures, moving among delicate scrolls and stylized columns. The printed fabric, with its deep and vibrant hues, features an intense powder pink background that beautifully highlights the refined details of the design. Elephants, symbols of good fortune, protection, and abundance, also embody wisdom and longevity--a majestic yet benevolent presence for an exceptional interior. This fabric is produced by the renowned Gaston y Daniela company, founded in 1876, a leading name for interior design professionals and recognized for the quality and timeless elegance of its creations. These delightful curtains are in excellent condition. The curtains are lined with white

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

fabric. Pleats are present at the top, and hooks are in place for easy installation. Dimensions of each panel: Height: 297 cm Width: 148 cm. The hem is not finished to allow you to adjust the height to your needs; our sewing service will carefully finish it to your desired measurements. A spectacular piece, ideal for enhancing a living room, library, or period home. Ref 190226