Description

Biblical Scene, oil on canvas, dated between 1600 and 1700. Large oil painting on canvas depicting a historical-biblical or allegorical scene set in a classical architectural context. The composition revolves around a central group of figures elegantly dressed in warm tones--ochre, orange, brown, and deep green--arranged in a theatrical and dynamic layout. In the center, an elderly man in a draped cloak guides or supports a young woman in a graceful pose, creating the narrative focus of the scene. Around them are other characters, including a seated woman with a child in the foreground and figures in the background observing the episode, contributing to the sense of a choral narrative. The compositional structure is emphasized by an architectural backdrop with columns and a stormy sky, rendered with broad,
