Original watercolor depicting the decoration and furnishings of the dining room in the Parisian residence of HRH Khalid Bin Fahad, created by the renowned French decorating firm specializing in the interiors of royal and princely residences worldwide. Many luxury properties were decorated by this firm (Mercier Frères) between 1928 and 1985, located at 100 Faubourg Saint-Antoine in Paris. The watercolor is very well preserved with its original colors remaining fresh and luminous. This is absolutely not an engraving or a copy. It retains its original protective film. An inscription in the lower right corner identifies the project as one of several designs for this residence for the Prince. The painted cardboard measures 65 x 50 cm.
