Description

Giltwood Mirror from the Regency Period, Circa 1720. Sumptuous giltwood and carved mirror from the Regency period, with a floral basket motif. This rectangular mirror with an arched top is made of finely carved and gilded wood. Its openwork pediment is adorned with a floral basket, leafy scrolls, and delicately crafted volutes. Its spandrels are embellished with foliate motifs. The gilding displays a beautiful antique patina. A very fine decorative art object of exceptional quality, with refined and elegant lines. This mirror combines practical utility with its functional use, while also offering a superb visual appeal with its delicate curves and meticulous finish. It will easily adapt to your interior by capturing and diffusing light. This piece, with its lovely patina, testifies to the
