Description
-------------

Elegant flat-topped teak desk with drawers, known as a "minister's desk." French work from the 1960s. It consists of a large rectangular top supported by two drawer units, each with three drawers. The piece rests on four short metal legs. The top is protected by a polished glass top. Locks with one key. Minor restoration to one corner. Good used condition with a few minor scratches on the top/drawers and slightly faded varnish. Attractive presentation.

Dismountable. Suitable for display as a centerpiece. Metal plaque engraved "VM" inside one drawer. Display items (armchair, Lalique paperweight, Iguzzini lamp, etc.) sold separately.
