Description

Jean-Marc Bodin, Galloping Tiger, bronze, signed and numbered 3/8, Bodin cast. Height 36 x 74 x 20 cm (base H 3 x 35 x 22 cm). Jean-Marc Bodin was born in 1965. He is one of the very few animal artists who personally carries out all stages of creating his bronze sculptures: mold making, casting, chasing, and patination. Jean-Marc Bodin studied sculpture at the Strasbourg School of Decorative Arts with Patrick Lang and François Cacheux. He entered the world of art foundries, working for Delval, Fonderies de la Plaine, and Ducros, learning the craft of foundry work. He set up his own sculpture studio and later opened his own art foundry in Pierrefitte, Seine-Saint-Denis, to create his bronze menagerie. "Nature is my model, and emotion is the source of my
