Description

A substantial and elegant flame mahogany bookcase, dating from the Napoleon III period, second half of the 19th century. It comprises two sections: - the upper section features three glazed doors revealing interior shelves; - the lower section has three solid doors with straight panels. The rounded uprights, the projecting cornice, and the rich flame mahogany veneer lend it a warm and refined decorative presence. Functional keys and locks. Very high-quality craftsmanship. The two-part design facilitates transport. Beautiful antique patina. In very good condition. A model that is both understated and elegant, perfect as a bookcase or display cabinet. Delivery within Metropolitan France (including home installation) EUR180. Contact us for more information.
