Description

Tuscan Renaissance-style walnut cassapanca (bench chest), dating to the late 19th century. A piece of strong presence, featuring a solid construction and a richly carved front with foliate motifs and a central medallion. The hinged lid opens to a spacious storage compartment, originally intended for linens or valuables. Molded base resting on carved paw feet, typical of Renaissance tradition. Warm, even patina highlighting the walnut grain. Ideal as a statement piece in an entryway, living room, or at the foot of a bed. In good overall condition, with age-appropriate wear.
