Description

White and bluish "sommerso" glass with inclusions of exotic fish. Murano. 1950s-1960s. Height: 12.5 cm. Diameter: 23.5 cm. Sommerso means "immersed" in Italian. This complex technique involves layering several pieces of glass of different colors while blending them harmoniously. It requires great skill and precision from the glassmaker to achieve the depth and color saturation that create a striking visual effect. Each sommerso glass vase is a unique work of art.
