Description

Elegant pair of Venetian Blackamoor sculptures, finely carved in wood and enriched with gilded details. The figures, dressed in richly detailed Oriental-style garments, hold upper bowls that can be used as plant holders or decorative elements. The statues rest on shaped and dynamic bases, featuring refined carvings and polychrome finishes that enhance their theatrical and decorative impact. These early 19th-century Italian sculptures represent the refined Venetian tradition of decorative art, making them ideal statement pieces for prestigious interiors.
