Description

Oil on canvas after the original work by Louis Émile Minet (1841-1923) entitled "The Ferryman's Daughter" or "The Crossing."

Anonymous work, circa 1920, well executed, good overall condition, but a thorough cleaning is necessary to restore the vibrant colors as the varnish has yellowed. To differentiate it from the original, the artist removed the two fishermen in the background. Dimensions: 61 x 46 cm
