Description

An elegant Art Nouveau side table in solid mahogany, crafted in the style of Louis Majorelle, the renowned cabinetmaker of the Nancy School. This piece is distinguished by its delicate curved lines and openwork decoration with ogee arches, typical of the organic, plant-inspired style of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The slender uprights terminate in subtly cabriole legs, lending the piece lightness and harmony. The slightly scalloped, square top rests on an elegant and balanced base. A lower stretcher shelf enhances stability while providing additional space for displaying an art object, sculpture, or plant. Wood: Solid mahogany. Style: Art Nouveau. In the style of Majorelle. Dimensions: Height: 80 cm. Width: 45 cm. Depth: 45 cm.
