

Articulated Wooden Artist's Mannequin - Late 19th Century

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Quelques manques

Material : Solid wood

Length : 34 cm

Description

Fully articulated, it features a structure composed of cylindrical and curved elements assembled with original metal pegs and axles, allowing for a wide range of movement. The torso is formed of superimposed discs mounted on a central axis, offering additional flexibility in tilt and rotation, characteristic of antique workshop models. The deliberately stylized and refined head, as well as the limbs with their softened forms, attest to meticulous craftsmanship. The warm patina of the wood, nuanced by use and the years, lends the whole an authentic and decorative character. Originally intended for painting and drawing workshops for the study of proportions and poses of the human body, this mannequin is now a beautiful object of curiosity, both sculptural and decorative. It is in good condition, with some

Dealer

Bergmans Scott Fine Arts

Tribal art (African) , Asian art, European art and curiosities

Mobile : 0032475733376

Fax : scottbergmans@hotmail.com

Limburg

Lommel 3920

wear and minor imperfections, but one hand is missing.