Description

Refined pair of solid walnut stools, finely carved and turned. This pair of stools is characterized by four elegantly turned "spool" legs, with a crosspiece in the center and sides. The comfortable seat, upholstered in amber and yellow fabric with geometric patterns, adds further refinement. This pair of stools exudes great taste and elegance, adding a touch of class and antique appeal to any space. Tuscan manufacture from the Louis XIV period, circa second half of the 17th century.
