Description

A large and elegant composition depicting the Virgin and Child, executed in pastel on cardboard and presented under glass. Its style, delicate modeling, and treatment of the drapery suggest a late 19th-century origin. It belongs to the academic tradition inspired by the great Baroque models, while retaining a gentle and intimate sensibility. The serene gaze, the tenderness of the maternal gesture, and the subtle gradations create a harmonious and profoundly soothing atmosphere. The pastel technique reveals its full finesse here, offering nuanced flesh tones and beautiful depth of color. Its generous dimensions lend this composition an elegant and timeless presence. Size: 94 × 76 cm.
