Description

Magnificent Turkmen Yomud Torba. This type of refined piece was positioned above the entrance of a nomadic dwelling. Woven and knotted wool on wool. The pile is short, almost flat. The patterns are precise. The piece is in a near-miraculous state of preservation, impeccable. The ties are still there. The woven back is intact. A highly decorative collector's item, perfect on a wall, framed or unframed, on a sofa armrest, or as a tabletop... Circa 1900.
