Description

Bouquet of Roses, 19th Century Oil on Panel, reminiscent of Flemish vanitas or memento mori paintings. Charming still life depicting a bouquet of roses in a glass vase on a tabletop. A butterfly flutters to the side, and a dewdrop rests on a petal. Beautiful 19th-century oil on panel. The panel is made of two planks, hence the joint in the center, visible on the back. Beautiful Louis XVI style giltwood frame. A miniature painting with undeniable charm and luminous colors. Dimensions: 17 cm wide and 25 cm with the frame; 23 cm high and 31 cm with the frame.
