Description

Louis XV Style Bresse Jam Cup in Burr Walnut - Circa 1900. This elegant jam cupboard, in the traditional Bresse style, was made around 1900 in walnut and burr walnut. It features a drawer at the top and a front door revealing a compartmentalized interior. The scalloped front is adorned with beautiful burr walnut panels with a rich, deep grain. The curved uprights and cabriole legs faithfully reflect the lines of the Louis XV style. Harmonious proportions and a beautiful, warm patina complete this decorative and practical piece, ideal as an accent piece, end table, or small storage unit. Period: Circa 1900. Style: Louis XV. Origin: Regional Bresse work. Wood: Walnut and burr walnut. Dimensions: Height: 96 cm, Width: 65 cm, Depth: 44 cm
