Description

Important chandelier in patinated and hammered wrought iron and pressed molded glass with geometric decoration, large and deep octagonal and pyramidal bowl surrounded by six tulip-shaped shades of thick pressed molded glass. David GUERON (1892-1950), known as DEGUÉ. Art Deco period, circa 1930. Signed Degué on the shades. Height: 100 cm. Diameter: 65 cm. Bowl diameter: 46 cm. Very good condition, original wiring in working order. The pressed molded glass was produced at the Cristalleries de Compiègne in 1927. David Guéron and Sylvain Danon took over this crystal factory and produced, among other things, lighting fixtures until 1935.
