Description

Herringbone parquet flooring from a Parisian building, dating from the early 19th century. It has been completely refinished in thickness, with tongue and groove joints, and can be glued down. EUR18,468 excluding VAT per lot / EUR22,162 including VAT, or EUR360 excluding VAT per square meter. As the wood is quite old, it immediately develops a beautiful finish with just a coat of wax applied after installation! It can also be oiled. A6381
