Description

Pair of Art Deco bedside tables, made around 1930, crafted from thuya burl and mahogany veneer. The curved fronts open with a drawer and a door, and a niche completes the front. The molded, ogee-shaped legs extend beyond the sides and front, featuring a metal trim around the edge. The molded top originally held a glass plate (showing some scratches from use). Original nickel-plated metal drawer pulls. An authentic Art Deco piece, fully restored in our cabinetmaking workshop. Finished with a French polish (resistant to splashes of water, alcohol, etc.), completely renewed. Delivery within France and abroad upon request. Height: 67 cm Width: 40 cm Depth: 30 cm. The legs extend 45 mm beyond the front and on each side of the bedside table.
