Description

A young girl stands upright, holding a bouquet, at the center of the composition surrounded by stylized vegetation. Behind her head, with its long blonde hair held back by ribbons, a bubble of mixed plants forms, as if emanating from her thoughts. She stands like a tree reaching towards the sky, a recurring theme in the works of Aristide Caillaud. Signed lower right Aristide Caillaud and dated 74. Edition 8/100. Heights 67 and 40 cm - widths 51 and 27 cm. Aristide Caillaud (1902-1990). Good condition, minor stains in the wide margins, slight rippling in the upper right (back board stained by damp). Framed with a thin wooden molding, anti-reflective glass.
