Description

Early 20th-century Caucasian rug in good condition, a collector's item. It measures 114 cm wide by 202 cm long excluding the fringe, 240 cm including the fringe. This very beautiful rug, of exquisite fineness, is hand-knotted wool on wool. The decoration is very generous and elegant, featuring mandorlas placed diagonally and decorated with the Tree of Life. The border is cruciform and Greek key patterns. The rug finishes at both ends with a kilim-style hem ending in long fringes. The border work is admirable, as is the central field which forms the heart of this piece! These rugs are distinguished by their highly varied and imaginative geometric patterns. Sometimes, stylized animal figures or geometric, floral, and architectural motifs are found. This piece, of great beauty and delicate
