Description

A large marquetry chest of drawers in rosewood and palisander, featuring a rare set of 12 superimposed drawers. The corners are adorned with gilt bronze mounts. The drawers are opened by a central gilt bronze ring in the form of a laurel wreath resting on a plate decorated with a row of pearls. The whole is attractively contrasted by a palisander inlay on the drawer. The chest is in perfect condition. It is topped with its original thick (4 cm) red marble slab with canted and molded corners. There are a few small losses to the marble under the edge, on the left (see photo). The chest of drawers has been French polished by our cabinetmaker.
