650 EUR

Signature : Afrique Centrale

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ebony

Description

Important African sculpture carved from a single block of wood, depicting a stylized, openwork anthropomorphic figure. A high-quality piece, with slender, interlocking forms, demonstrating considerable technical skill. An incised signature is present but only partially legible. There is also a handwritten label (N 131), suggesting that this piece has previously been in a gallery or collection inventory. Central Africa (probably Cameroon/Congo/Gabon?). Large piece: 70 cm high x 12 cm wide, in ebony. Good overall condition, with an old patina and wear consistent with age. This sculpture belongs to the tradition of African workshop sculptures intended for collectors and enthusiasts of tribal art. It is an artistic piece, far beyond mere tourist merchandise, and possesses genuine aesthetic
