

Small Ash-glazed Pot, Sawankhalok, Thailand XVI

150 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sandstone

Height : 4 cm

Description

Small ash-glazed pot from Sawankhalok, Thailand, 16th century. Minor chip on the rim. Sawankhalok ceramics played a significant role in trade and cultural exchange in Southeast Asia from the 14th to the 16th centuries. Ceramics from this region were highly sought after, both domestically and within maritime trade networks, their unique motifs becoming emblematic of Thailand's cultural identity during the Sukhothai period.

Dealer

Galerie Aire Ona

XVIII, XIX and XX centuries antiques

Tel : 33 638722451

Hasparren 64240