Description

An elegant oil on canvas depicting a river landscape against a backdrop of trees. In the style of the Barbizon school, the painting is of very high quality, with thick impasto and superb colors. Deep and luminous, this 19th-century painting is unsigned. It is the work of an artist who mastered the technique of oil painting. The foliage and sky are superb and very realistic. The painting is in very good overall condition with some old restorations visible in the photos.
