Description

French Mirror - 19th CenturyDimensions: 125 × 180 cmDescription:Elegant 19th-century French mirror, featuring a finely carved wooden frame distinguished by floral motifs and stylized shells.The crest and lower section are enriched with important central cartouches, while the corners display deeply carved decorations typical of the late Baroque-Régence taste reinterpreted during the 19th century. The gilding enhances the intricate carved details.The mirror retains its original glass, a particularly valuable feature that attests to the authenticity of the piece. Thanks to its impressive proportions, it can be placed either vertically as a wall or entrance mirror, or horizontally above a console, sideboard, or fireplace.A piece of great decorative charm, ideal for classical interiors, yet equally perfect for
