Description

A piece titled "An Elegant Woman"...Made of blown, pressed, molded glass...And sandblasted...Only the base is clear glass...From the 1930s...French glasswork, in my opinion...For your information, I wasn't familiar with this piece before finding it...The base may have been ground down to remove a chip...This doesn't detract from the beauty of the object at all...!!It's a high-quality glass piece without any flaws...Weight... 227 grams
