Description

Empire Bed with Detached Columns in Flamed Mahogany - 19th Century External Dimensions: Height: 117 cm Width: 200 cm Depth: 142 cm Internal Dimensions: Length: 187 cm Width: 120 cm Description Important Empire bed with detached columns in flamed mahogany veneer, French work from the early 19th century. The bed rests on four detached cylindrical columns, punctuated by rings finely gilded with gold leaf. The ends feature simple yet powerful scrolls, directly inspired by Antiquity, characteristic of furniture during the First Empire. The slightly curved front showcases a mahogany veneer with a deep and warm flame pattern. It is adorned in its center with an elegant gilt bronze allegorical motif. The entire piece is finished with a French polish (shellac), offering a high-quality
